CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, by and through his attorney, Irene K. Dymkar, complaining against defendants, states as follows:

NATURE OF CLAIM

1. This action arises under the United States Constitution and the laws of the United States, specifically the Civil Rights Act of 1871 (42 U.S.C. § 1983), to redress deprivations of the civil rights of plaintiff through acts and/or omissions of defendants committed under color of law. Specifically here, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

2. Additionally, plaintiff relies upon the Court's supplemental jurisdiction to assert the Illinois state claim of malicious prosecution.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. Jurisdiction is based upon 28 U.S.C. §§1343, 1331, and 1367.

4. Venue lies in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391, because all events or omissions giving rise to this claim occurred in this district.

PARTIES

5. At all times herein mentioned, plaintiff was and is a citizen of the United States and resides within the jurisdiction of the court.

6. At all times herein mentioned, defendants LAWRENCE DARKO and PATRICK FAHEY, JR. were officers in the Chicago Police Department and were acting under color of state law and as the employees or agents of the City of Chicago, Illinois. Said defendants are being sued in their individual capacity.

7. Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO is a municipal corporation, duly organized under the laws of the State of Illinois. Defendant CITY OF CHICAGO maintained, managed, and/or operated the Chicago Police Department.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

8. On September 25, 2007, plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, was lawfully walking near 75th Street and S. Phillips Ave., in Chicago, Illinois, engaged in lawful activity.

9. Defendants LAWRENCE DARKO and PATRICK FAHEY, JR., jumped out of a police vehicle, and stopped plaintiff without reasonable suspicion and without legal cause.

10. Defendants DARKO and FAHEY searched plaintiff and arrested him, despite the fact there was no warrant for his arrest and no probable cause to believe that he had committed a crime.

11. Defendants DARKO and FAHEY caused false felony drug charges to be filed against plaintiff. Plaintiff was booked, processed, and formally charged with said crimes.

12. Plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, was wrongfully incarcerated for said false criminal charges.

13. Plaintiff was found not guilty after a trial of the criminal matter.

14. By reason of the above-described acts and omissions of the defendant police officers, plaintiff sustained injuries, humiliation, and indignities, and suffered great mental and emotional pain and suffering, all to his damage.

15. The aforementioned acts of the defendant police officers were willful, wanton, malicious, oppressive, and done with reckless indifference to and/or callous disregard for plaintiff's rights and justify the awarding of exemplary and punitive damages.

16. Because of the above-described acts and omissions of the individual defendants, plaintiff was required to retain an attorney to institute, prosecute, and render legal assistance to him in the within action, so that he might vindicate the loss and impairment of his rights. By reason thereof, plaintiff requests payment by the individual defendants of a reasonable sum for attorneys' fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988, the Equal Access to Justice Act, or any other provision set by law.

COUNT I

Plaintiff Against Defendants DARKO and FAHEY for Illegal Stop

17. Plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, incorporates and realleges paragraphs 1 – 16, as though set forth herein in their entirety.

18. The stop of plaintiff by defendants was without reasonable suspicion that plaintiff was involved in any criminal activity and without any other legal cause.

19. By reason of the conduct of defendants, plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, was deprived of rights, privileges and immunities secured to him by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and laws enacted thereunder. Therefore, defendants DARKO and FAHEY, and each of them, is liable to plaintiff pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983.

COUNT II
Plaintiff Against Defendants DARKO and FAHEY for Illegal Search

20. Plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, incorporates and realleges paragraphs 1 – 16, as though set forth herein in their entirety.

21. The search of plaintiff's person was without probable cause, or even reasonable suspicion, to believe that plaintiff was involved in any criminal activity and was unreasonable.

22. By reason of the conduct of defendants, plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, was deprived of rights, privileges and immunities secured to him by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and laws enacted thereunder. Therefore, defendants DARKO and FAHEY, and each of them, is liable to plaintiff pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983.

24. The arrest and incarceration of plaintiff by defendants DARKO and FAHEY for the purpose of charging him with false crimes were without probable cause and unreasonable.

25. By reason of the conduct of the individual defendants, plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, was deprived of rights, privileges and immunities secured to him by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and laws enacted thereunder. Therefore, defendants DARKO and FAHEY, and each of them, is liable to plaintiff pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983.

COUNT IV

Plaintiff Against Defendants DARKO and FAHEY for Due Process Violations

26. Plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, incorporates and realleges paragraphs 1 – 16, as though set forth herein in their entirety.

27. Defendants DARKO and FAHEY deprived plaintiff of fair criminal proceedings by engaging in multiple acts which include, but are not limited to, not disclosing known exculpatory evidence, submitting false charges as contained in the criminal complaints, submitting false police reports, swearing to false statements, and otherwise acting to influence and persuade the State's Attorney to prosecute plaintiff and to deny plaintiff fair legal proceedings.

28. These acts were directed toward plaintiff, were intentional and material, and therefore were in violation of plaintiff's due process rights.

29. By reason of the conduct of the individual defendants, plaintiff, DARRELL CREASY, was deprived of rights, privileges, and immunities secured to him by the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and laws enacted thereunder. Therefore, defendants DARKO and FAHEY, and each of them, is liable to plaintiff pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983.

COUNT V

for the institution of any criminal charge against plaintiff. The criminal proceedings were commenced and continued maliciously.

32. Defendants DARKO and FAHEY facilitated this malicious prosecution by falsifying evidence, creating false police reports, falsifying written criminal charges, and giving false information under oath.

33. Plaintiff was wrongfully incarcerated as a direct result of the prosecution of the criminal charges.

34. Plaintiff retained the services of a private criminal attorney to represent him in his defense, thus incurring legal fees.

35. Plaintiff was injured emotionally and otherwise from the loss of certain liberty and related rights.
